Get Ready Week

Did you know this past week was our national Get Ready Week and this year's theme is Stay Safe, Stay Informed.
Emergencies can happen anywhere, any time, and without warning. You can see more details and a lot of information from:
<http://www.civildefence.govt.nz/cdem-sector/public-education/get-ready-week/>

Have you filled in your TUC Emergency Contact Form yet? There are spare forms in the foyer or you can email details of your emergency contact person to the office.

ICHC special collection

Over the next couple of weeks we will be taking a special collection for the ICHC (Interchurch Council for Hospital Chaplaincy).

We heard Amy speak on the work of ICHC last week and if you wish to help them please put a donation in an envelope marked with your giving number and ICHC and put it in the offerings. We will pass the donations on and ensure the offering is added to your church giving total.

Calendar orders—Don't forget to order your TUC Calendar, a sample and order form are in the foyer.
The first batch have been printed and a second batch will be printed in the next few weeks.

Cannons Creek Foodbank & Community Garden

On delivering last weeks donations for the foodbank, I asked if there were any particular requirements. The response was all items gratefully received but with focus on canned food - particularly cans of fruit in juice (parents put into smaller containers so children can have fruit in their school lunch) and given the time of year seeds and seedlings.

Thanks for your ongoing support for the foodbank and community garden and the work in community being undertaken by Wesley Community Action.
